

A Prayer to the Blank Page

A prayer to the blank page.
To pure white potential.

A prayer to my next creation.

Gratitude to the wisdom I have found
that's ready to come out;

To the ones supporting me.

My heart is open. My mind at peace.

May my hands become a portal.

My breath the bridge between my inner and outer world.

Interweaving the seen and unseen.

May I reflect what is honest, real, and raw.

Leaving room for all of my human tendencies and my curves.

May I surrender to the creative flow that moves me and moves through me.

Anchoring in Unconditional Love
And stepping into Sacred Space.
